

Song

W-I-S-D-O-M

There is something that's better than the latest toy
There is something that never can be destroyed
It's worth more than jewels and gold
Or anything money can buy

CHORUS

W-I-S-D-O-M spells wisdom, I need it
W-I-S-D-O-M in Your Word, I find it
I need Your wisdom, Lord, each day

Left to my own self I always tend to go astray
But in the Bible You reveal Your perfect ways
You teach me to think like You
Instead of being a fool

BRIDGE

I wanna love it, live it, learn it, read it (W-I-S-D-O-M!)
I wanna know it, think it, speak it, breathe it (W-I-S-D-O-M!)

Questions:

1. Do you practice listening? When your friends talk to you are you listening to them? More importantly when your parents or teacher speaks to you, do you get wisdom by practicing listening?
2. Have you thought before that listening shows love and respect? Is there someone you love and respect that you tend to not listen to? Can you show your love and respect for them by practicing listening?
3. Do you tend to do the talking or the listening? It is hard to listen if you love to talk. Are there ways you can talk less and listen more this week?

4. Have you ever thought that Jesus always listens to us when we come to him in prayer? We can be more like Christ if we listen. How can you be more like Christ this week by practicing listening?
